Year 3 Gurdwara Visit

Dear Year 3 Parents and Carers,

We are delighted to share that the children will have the wonderful opportunity to visit the Gurdwara in Barking as part of their learning about Sikhism. During our visit, the children will have the opportunity to explore the Gurdwara and develop their understanding of Sikh beliefs, traditions and practices. They will learn about the importance of the Gurdwara within the Sikh community and have the chance to see and experience aspects of Sikh worship and daily life.

This visit will provide a valuable, hands-on learning experience, allowing the children to build on their knowledge of Sikhism and develop a greater appreciation and respect for different faiths and cultures.

We are very much looking forward to this exciting opportunity and the enriching learning experience it will provide for the children.

Venue: Gurdwara Singh Sabha – Barking

Date(s):

3P and 3J – Monday 28th September
